Meeting Urgent Needs

1736 Family Crisis Center is a private, nonprofit organization working to ensure the safety, survival, and success of battered women and their children, homeless and runaway youth, and others in need throughout Los Angeles County and beyond.

Throughout its 37-year history, 1736 FCC has expanded its services to include four shelters for battered women and their children, a shelter for runaway and homeless youth, three Community Service Centers located in Torrance, South Los Angeles and Long Beach, 24-hour hotlines, emergency response services, and more. 1736 Family Crisis Center services reach over 25,000 people each year.

Tickets will be held at Will Call.

*Once at Valet station, mention being with the 1736 Family Crisis Center event for complimentary service; tips not included but certainly permitted.
